James Suckling

Lange 2018 Pinot Noir Freedom Hill Vineyard

Impressively fresh aromas of red cherries and cherry pie with a stony and leafy edge, hints of chalk and raspberry compote. The nose is very expressive with some more cryptic flashes. The palate has the same dichotomy with such plush, ripe red cherries to start out with. It has a supple, succulent feel with a sense of levity in this warmer vintage.

Then, the velvety mid palate builds to a firm, commanding yet fine finish,
