James Suckling

Lange 2018 Pinot Noir Three Hills Cuveé Willamette Valley

There's depth to the aromas here with fresh, crushed violets and notes of orange zest, as well as pomegranate and a sultry, spicy dark-fruit core. The palate has very attractive, fresh dark cherries and dark plums fruit with cocoa, too. The tannins are plush and full, carrying purple fruit long into the smooth, velvety finish. A blend of Yamhill-Carlton, Estate and Liberty Hill grapes.
